TITLE: Executive Director – Huntington, New York

LOCATION: YMCA of Long Island
Huntington Branch
60 Main Street
Huntington, NY 11743

An opportunity awaits...

Be a part of something great and join a progressive YMCA that is seeking an experienced career professional to become our Executive Director at our facility in Huntington, Long Island. Located in the heart of Huntington, the Huntington YMCA has been serving children, teens, families and seniors for more than 50 years. This branch, which is the our Association's largest, features two heated indoor pools, modern locker rooms with saunas, a state-of-the art fitness center with new equipment constantly being added, as well as the new Jorge Healthily Living Center, a $10 million addition to the facility which is home to all healthy living programs, including signature initiatives and a state of the art gymnasium with an indoor running track. The Huntington YMCA also includes the Sammis Children's Center that features 13 modern classrooms for our early childhood programs and before and afterschool care.

The town is located at the western end of Suffolk County adjacent to the Nassau-Suffolk County boundary and is approximately 40 miles from Manhattan. Huntington enjoys five harbors bordering the north shore of the Town: Cold Spring Harbor, Lloyd Harbor, Huntington, Centerport, and Northport harbors. With its coves and bays, there are nine beaches maintained by the Town. The Town has also put into operation three marinas for the use of residents. These facilities, along with boat ramps and municipal golf courses and park sites, provide active recreation for town residents.

General Function

Under the general direction of the Chief Operating Officer, this position is accountable for the successful management of the Huntington Branch. ### YMCA Competencies (Multi-Team Leader):

Change Leadership: Initiates changes to improve the Y, meet community needs, and maximize impact. Creates a sense of urgency to support change initiatives. Manages implementation of change by understanding and addressing the impact of change on cultures, systems, and people. Aligns time and resources to allow new approaches to catch on, evolve, and thrive. Plans for resistance as part of the change process and develops strategies to help adapt and accept change initiatives.

Engaging Community: Stewards the Y cause, promoting and protecting the brand and reputation as a global, inclusive organization within the community. Effectively communicates community benefit and the Y's impact for all stakeholders (e.g., staff, volunteers, members, community leaders). Builds bridges within the community so that all segments of society have access to the Y.

Philanthropy: Engages staff, volunteers, and members in fundraising activities and strategies. Organizes philanthropic activity and strategies to successfully raise necessary funds. Reports the sources, uses, and management of donated funds to constituents in order to preserve and enhance confidence in the organization.

Volunteerism: Maintains diverse advisory councils that actively support the Y's goals and strategic plans. Clarifies and reinforces the division of roles and responsibilities between corporate boards, management or advisory boards, staff, and general volunteers.

Collaboration: Builds strong, strategic relationships with current and prospective partners inside and outside the Y. Recruits key organizational partners with diverse perspectives and talents to better meet community needs and identified critical social issues. Engages in collaborations with openness and desire to share leadership. Creates processes to identify and manage collaborations effectively.

Communication and Influence: Uses effective and persuasive communication skills to represent the Y as a thought leader in the community. Proactively communicates during critical and important situations, such as crisis or disaster situations. Gets things done through others by effectively reading and interpreting the culture, decisions, networks, and politics in the organization.

Inclusion: Leads efforts that deepen the Y's connections to underserved communities and the global Y movement.

Critical Thinking and Decision Making: Challenges conventional thinking to improve processes or experiences. Navigates differing stakeholder perspectives or ambiguous information when making decisions.

Fiscal Management: Manages the budgeting process so that resources are devoted to top priorities and strategic objectives. Institutes sound accounting procedures, investment policies, and financial controls. Uses data to analyze financial trends and forecast future financial progress for the organization.

Functional Expertise: Has the functional and technical knowledge and skills to do the job at a high level of accomplishment. Uses best practices, guidelines, and industry standards as a framework to improve performance. Demonstrates up-to-date knowledge and skills in the technology associated with the job. Serves with purpose and passion.

Innovation: Demonstrates courageous and intelligent risk taking with awareness of societal, economic, and political issues and their impact on the strategic direction of the organization. Rewards and recognizes new and relevant ideas and approaches even if not successful.

Program/Project Management: Designs practices, processes, and procedures for strong project management (e.g., project charter, risk mitigation). Organizes people and activities for efficiencies and effectiveness. Measures progress against strategic goals and ensures continuous improvement. Continually evaluates progress, impact, and outcomes; makes process improvements and adjustments as needed.

Developing Self and Others: Holds others accountable for equitable staff hiring, promotion, and development. Creates a learning environment that supports and promotes the acquisition, application, and sharing of new knowledge. Guides others on how to strengthen knowledge, skills, and competencies that improve organizational performance. Develops the feedback and coaching skills of others. Engages in and champions ongoing feedback, coaching, and opportunities for informal and formal learning at all levels.

Emotional Maturity: Creates an environment of trust and respect by empowering others and sharing authority.
